Important Passport / Visa Information:

Lost or stolen passports

For the first six months of this year the Dept of Foreign Affairs have received up to 1,600 lost Irish Passports, many were found in bars and restaurants all over the country. The Dept will no longer return them, therefore, for lost passports a new application is required.

New Passport Requirements

With effect, 26th October 2004 all persons, including children, will require an individual passport for entry into the USA. The Passport Office have advised that in respect of all new passports issued from 1st October 04, all children, regardless of age, must obtain an individual passport.

26th October deadline:

All persons including children must have individual passports for entry into the USA.

Special Rates for Travel Broker Corporate customers at the newly refurbished Anna Livia Lounge Dublin Airport

The Anna Livia Lounge is the only lounge at Dublin Airport that passengers can use irrespective of the airline they are traveling with or the type of ticket they have. At the Anna Livia you can sit back, relax and enjoy complimentary drinks and refreshments. A business centre is also available with complimentary fax, photocopier, PC and Internet access. Newspapers, TV and Flight information screens are also available for your convenience. Contact our Corporate department for more information.

Aer Lingus TAB

The TAB level will be discontinued with effect from 31st October 04. TAB account balances must be redeemed by this date, TAB points that are not redeemed will be eliminated. From 31st August 04 accrual of TAB points will be restricted to members of Gold Circle Club Members only. A minimum of 3,500 points must be accrued in a 12 month period to join Gold Circle.

E-Ticketing - more secure, cost saving for your company.

Many airlines now offer Electronic tickets (E-Ticketing). This form of ticketing is more secure and will eliminate courier costs.

When an E-Ticket is issued, you will receive notification of your itinerary along with an airline reference by email, print this out and present it at check-in for your boarding card.

Irish Honeymoon Registry

Getting married?

Did you know that The Travel Broker have the first exclusive online Irish Honeymoon Registry.

Your online honeymoon registry works just like a wedding registry in a department store. You select the gifts you want included in your registry and your family and friends can purchase these items as a wedding present for you!

But instead of china, bed linen and glassware you get your flights, hotel and fun honeymoon activities paid for! Take that dive course you've always wanted or enjoy a massage in the hotel spa. What you put on your list is up to you.
